DIST. ATTORNEY NAMED IN SUIT

District Attorney Swart was named defendant in a $10,000 liability suit filed in the office of the county clerk this week by Daniel C. Imboden, secretary of the Three Cities Chamber of Commerce. The complaint, a little talk given by the plaintiff before the Chamber of Commerce, stated that the defendant, district attorney, had been negligent in his handling of the case of the late Mrs. Imboden, who had been killed by a car driven by a member of the family. The plaintiff claimed that the defendant had been negligent in his handling of the case, and that he had been negligent in his handling of the case, and that he had been negligent in his handling of the case.

Activity Continues On Water Front

The activity which has of late been concentrated upon the Redwood City water front, has not been abated within the week but seems to gain in impetus every day. More machinery is being brought in every day by the Portland Cement Company, which is erecting an immense cement factory here, and by the New York Foundation Company, which is erecting the buildings for them.

The edition of the San Francisco Chronicle of Wednesday, March 12, was one of the finest ever issued by that progressive publication. The feature was "Progressive California in Rotogravure," and showed the beautiful spots and industrial centers of our wonderful state.

U. C. Glee Club To Tour Nation

The University of California Glee Club gave a fine entertainment to the people of San Mateo last Friday night in the San Mateo Woman's Club house.

The University boys are versatile entertainers and one of the most prominent members is Mr. Kendall, town of this city. Kendall is pianist, organist, and president of the organization, and so is one of its leading lights.

The club is now showing in many California cities and is laying up a surplus to pay the expenses of a trip to Europe, which has been planned for this summer. The boys will leave at the close of the present semester and will play all of the big cities between San Francisco and New York. They have also many reservations for performances in Europe. They plan to be away for four months and should have a most wonderful time on their travels.

SON OF AUDITOR SHIELDS IN HONOLULU HOSPITAL

A letter was received this week by County Auditor J. J. Shields from his son, Richard, who is an engineer on one of the trans-Pacific steam ships. According to the letter the young man has been suffering with a severe attack of pleurisy, and is now in the hospital at Honolulu. Young Shields was taken with the disease while in Japan, and was taken to one of the hospitals there. The hospital, however, was crowded with sufferers from the recent earthquake.

NEWS OF WOODSIDE

The place of J. N. Gilman on the Cayuga Road, has been the scene of much activity during the last few months. The home, that was completely destroyed by fire last summer, has been rebuilt, and a new dairy barn has been built and a complete dairy equipment installed. This includes electric milking machines, a refrigerating and ice-making plant, a pasteurizing plant and mechanical bottling machinery. Provision has been made for the storage of fifteen of these bottles already at the plant and the dairy will soon be in full operation.

METHODIST LADIES AID HOLD CHICKEN DINNER

About 150 guests enjoyed the chicken dinner prepared by the ladies of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. O. F. Hall on Main street last Thursday evening. An elaborate spread had been prepared by the ladies and all who attended pronounced the dinner a complete success. The dinner was given by the ladies in order to raise a part of the money which they had pledged for the new church building, soon to be built in Redwood Highlands.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of the following: Mrs. L. B. Winger, chairman; Mrs. Charles Leighton, president of the Ladies Aid; Mrs. L. E. Neherthorn, secretary; Mrs. L. Baird, Mrs. Chas. Kincaid, and Mrs. L. Leary.

Ten young ladies of the Epworth League waited upon the tables: Mrs. Lida Ruth Medford, Mrs. Thomas Vernal, and the Misses Maud and Mura Stillson, Mary and Edith Adams, Lois Leary, Marguerite Arendse and Adeline Hall. These were assisted by all of the ladies of the church.

BURLINGAME MAN MAY RUN FOR STATE SENATOR

According to advices received from Burlingame, Gus Rizzo, deputy collector of internal revenue, will probably enter the race for state senator to succeed State Senator M. B. Johnson of Monterey, who is said will not be up for re-election this term, owing to the press of his own business. The many friends of Rizzo are anxious to have him run for the office and feel confident that he will be successful in his candidacy.

YOUNG CATHOLIC LADIES PLAN ST. PATRICK DANCE

The Young Ladies Sodality of the Mt. Carmel Catholic church are planning an elaborate affair in the nature of a St. Patrick's day dance which is to be given in the Foresters' hall next Monday night. While this event is always looked forward to by the Catholics of the community, it is said that the program arranged for this occasion will eclipse any so far enjoyed.

DISCOURAGED MAN COMMITTS SUICIDE

A note pinned to the door of a small shed in Wellesley Park, where A. Blackwell was in the habit of calling every morning to get his tools which he kept in the shed, led to the discovery of the sad end of Harry Mattoon, S. P. gateman, who had become despondent over ill health. The note was addressed to Blackwell and read as follows:

Redwood City, March 11, 1924

Mr. Contractor:

I will nail this note on the door.

When you come to work in the morning please notify Mr. Fay Pipkin, 55 Jefferson avenue as soon as possible, as I am going on a long journey.

I will turn on the gas at 8 P. M., and I sure will be dead by 8 A. M. My legs are gone and I hope my suffering will be over. You had better shut the gas off from the outside. I will leave the door unlocked. As you like to smoke cigars, I will give you what is left, about 50, for your trouble.

You will find a letter on the table for Fay Pipkin. I wish you would deliver it as soon as possible.

Yours respectfully,

HARRY F. MATTOON.

That lives in the garage. Good-bye everybody.

The body of the dead man was found on his bed. He had attached a garden hose to the gas jet of his house and had placed the other end in his mouth, and probably died within a few minutes. The letter addressed to Fay Pipkin was found as the note had said, and gave directions for the disposal of his body and told of his reasons for wishing to end his life. The will of the unfortunate man was also enclosed in the letter. In the will he requested that all his property, amounting to about $2000 go to Fay Pipkin, who had been a friend to him on many occasions.

The body was taken in charge by the Undertaking Company, and an inquest was held in their parlors on Thursday. The body was later removed to the Layng & Tinney parlors, from which Mattoon had asked to be buried. From the latter place his funeral took place on Thursday. Interment in Cypress Lawn cemetery.

Mattoon was a native of New York, and had been engaged in railroad work for many years. The injury sustained at this time he never recovered from, and was always lame in one leg. Recently he has been suffering with rheumatism in the other leg, and it was this fact that had made him despondent. The deceased was about 59 years old. So far as has been learned, he has no living relatives. He was a bachelor. For a number of years Mattoon had been a gateman at the Brewster street crossing.

LOCAL METHODISTS MAKING THE FINAL PLANS FOR NEW CHURCH

Edifice will soon be under construction in Highlands near the new Sequoia Union High School Building

Steps are being taken to build at once the new Methodist Episcopal church at the intersection of Broadway and Brewster streets in Redwood Highlands, near the new high school. The Methodist church is one of the oldest institutions in the town of Redwood City and has been closely connected with the development of the community since the present building was erected in 1874.

The Rev. Dr. Harry Owen, pastor, who has worked hard to raise the money for the new church during the last six weeks, has secured, with the gift from the centenary fund some $14,000.

Dr. Owen has had great experience in building churches, and his last effort was the raising of $150,000 to erect Union churches across the Panama Canal zone. He built at Cristobal a church for all denominations which cost $76,000, and he raised $40,000 in Balboa at the same time.

Highlands Dr. Owen is assisted by a noble band of church workers, and he cannot speak too highly of his members and the Redwood City citizens in general for the support they have given him in this enterprise.

Dr. Owen has several tempting offers of more lucrative pastures, but chooses to remain here to carry to completion the task he believes Providence has assigned him in Redwood City. He invites the hearty support of the city to help him carry through this lovely church. He needs $13,000 more.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS BIG MEETING

A meeting called with the idea of reorganizing the chamber of commerce, and getting some results from that organization, was announced for Thursday night, and was responded to by a good attendance of the members, at the chamber of commerce room at the Drew building. The matter of raising funds was thoroughly gone over, and many suggestions were made as to the best methods of getting the members to pay dues.

Plans were outlined for reviving interest in the chamber of commerce which since the recent fair at San Carlos has been in a languishing condition. Redwood City is growing, and the need of a progressive business organization is keenly felt, and that has the support of the business men of the town.

A committee was appointed which will get together and devise plans for making the chamber of commerce useful to the community and an asset to the town. A false report was started in town yesterday that the meeting was called for the purpose of disorganizing. No thought is entertained of any disorganization.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

It would seem that in this day and age, we wouldn't have to think about such a gruesome thing as capital punishment, but somehow it looms up so big that we can't get away from it. There are ten of them over there at San Quentin just now waiting their turn. They are just waiting in their little cages on condemned row and they each one know that they will have to take that last drop all by themselves.

The last one to enter, and leave all hope behind, is only seventeen years old. Think about that you folks who are enjoying your week-end rest. He's just seventeen years old; but on a bright May morning just two months from now he is going to walk out of his cell and then it will all be over for him. He won't suffer very much, but how is it going with his mother? She couldn't stand the strain when they got to the big gate. She had been so brave all the way from Siskiyou but when she was putting her arms around him to tell him to have faith, she just went down and out.

We don't know much about the crime, it may have been revolting, but the boy isn't the only one who will have to pay. It will be the gray haired little lady who will live on for twenty and perhaps thirty years and always shudder when she thinks of the May morning in the year of Our Lord, nineteen twenty-four.

Perhaps capital punishment is necessary in some cases. But it isn't the punishment that should be meted out to seventeen year old boys.

FIRE ARMS

There should be some way devised to stop boys and young men from carrying pistols. Policemen and soldiers may need them, but no one else should be allowed to have one. They have no place in the display windows of a hardware store or a pawn shop and every weapon so displayed should be confiscated by the police.

Boys now-a-days see so many movies wherein fire arms are used, and hear so many stories of daring and danger that they lose their perspective, and see things as they should not be seen. They are anxious to take a chance. If they have a pistol while they are taking the chance they may use it and then their career as useful citizens is at an end.

Boys are apt to be quick tempered. If they have only their fists they won't do very much damage, but if they have a gun that they can pull, it's an all together different story. If we could frame the laws we would not permit the manufacture or importation of pistols except by the government for military and police use. We have never known of a pistol that did much good, and goodness knows we have read of many that have caused misery, suffering, death and capital punishment.

Nobody but a policeman or a soldier has a right to tote a gun around and the big stone house should be the temporary abiding place for everyone caught with a pistol in his possession.

Try this plan for two years and we guarantee that there will be fewer hold-ups, highway robberies and murders. A pistol in the pocket has made many a criminal. We do not pretend to be prophets but we can see through a grindstone, providing there is a hole in the middle of it.

STANDARD OIL ADVERTISING

The Standard Oil Company has gone out of the advertising sign business. Convinced of the fact that the big sign marts and detracts from the beauties of nature, the big oil company has issued orders that all of its signs shall be removed from the highways.

Part of the order reads: "The Company feels that the splendid scenery so characteristic of nearly all of California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Arizona should be unmarred and on that account is willing to sacrifice the advertising value of the signs." The company will now depend upon the print shop to carry the story of Zerolene to the consumer. That's a sign of the times.

We trust more big concerns will follow the Standard Oil's lead. Who cares for a "Fuey Prune Flip" when it hides a beautiful scene?

The fight against the bill board has been waged for a good many years and has been the means of helping many cities. The open places though have always been infested with the glaring signs. The louder and more gorgeous they are the better the owner is suited. We wish more power to the Standard Oil's plan and we hope there will be a general game of "Follow the Leader."

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

We should have rain on Monday for it's St. Patrick's Day and usually we have a rain or at least a good Irish mist on the 17th of March.

St. Patrick's day is not a holiday, but it is a time that has come almost to be such because of custom. It is the day that has been set apart for the patron saint of Ireland.

Our encyclopedia says of him: "One of the men who carried Christianity to Ireland was the interesting figure known to us as St. Patrick. He was probably born in Scotland, of a noble family in 396, and was captured and taken to Ireland as a slave in 411. Escaping, he became a priest, and returned to Ireland. He died about 469." That is all it says about him. But he was a big enough man to leave an imprint upon a people that his name will never die. He was the founder of a religion in a country where the people are naturally religious. Little is known about how he accomplished his work or where he lived and died. Those things do not matter much. What we do know is that he lived and worked.

Any man whether he be priest or printer, student or statesman, who leaves a name that will be remembered for any length of time after his death, must be a worker. The world takes off its hat to a worker. History tells about him and nations make holidays because of him.

Here's hoping that there will be a little drop or two in store for us on Monday.

Record Touring Season Expected

With the 1924 touring season just around the corner, the California State Automobile Association is laying plans for a record year in its Touring Bureau. George S. Grant, manager of the bureau, announced this week that he expected the twenty-four touring bureaus maintained by the Automobile Club would have the record season in serving both residents of California and visitors coming into the state.

Strip maps, interstate highway maps and the association's motor tourist map are all being revised in anticipation of the touring season which Grant says will probably open somewhat earlier than usual this year on account of the absence of snow in the mountain passes. Unless spring weather is unusually severe, many roads that are usually impassable until late in the season will be open early, according to Grant. Some passes which are usually blocked during the winter have been traveled practically all the time during the past few months.

Up-to-date information on resorts, hotels and travel accommodations is now being compiled and will be furnished all touring bureaus of the Automobile Association. Hunting and fishing licenses and information and camp fire permits will be issued by the Automobile Club.

Every effort is being made to make the motor tourist's stay in California a pleasant one. He will be welcomed by signs at the state line and invited to call at the nearest Automobile Club office, where visitor's permits, a digest of California traffic laws, travel information and a motor tourist map will be furnished.

Last year over 66,000 out of state motorists visited California, according to records of visitor's permits compiled by the Division of Motor Vehicles. This record was more than double that of 1922, when only 28,300 permits were issued. These visitors came from every state in the Union and eight foreign countries. Based on an estimate of three persons to a car it means that nearly 200,000 persons visited the state in automobile tourist parties last year.

Another large increase is expected this year. In order to furnish these people with visitor's permits of automobile registration without undue inconvenience to them, the Automobile Club has arranged to issue these permits from its touring bureaus located in all parts of Northern and Central California. The permits are good for six months and the service being provided by the Automobile Club will eliminate the necessity of the tourist making a special trip to some branch office of the Division of Motor Vehicles to secure his permit.

MASONIC LODGES PREPARE FOR "PUBLIC SCHOOL WEEK"

Masonic Lodges of San Mateo county are to observe "Public School week," beginning March 24 and continuing for five days. Special programs during which members of the lodges will be addressed by prominent educators of the state will mark the observance of the week.

The purpose of the observance is to advance development of the public school system. Prominent speakers, including Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction, will address the lodges in San Francisco and all lodges have been requested to devote one evening to discussion of school problems, according to an announcement made public this week by Grand Master Arthur C. Crites of Bakersfield.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Appeared in Times-Gazette March 18, 1899.

Mr. Knight went to San Leandro last week and investigated the horseless carriages manufactured by the Best Manufacturing Company of that place and is satisfied that they are the greatest invention of the age and will soon be a strong competitor of the electric car lines. Mr. Knight took a jaunt along the bay to Hayward, making twenty miles an hour. He greatly enjoyed the ride.

The gasoline motor carriage is the first efforts of the Best Manufacturing Company of San Leandro, and they are so pleased with its performance that they intend manufacturing them for the market. The weight of the vehicle with the water and gasoline aboard for a trip of 150 miles is 2570 pounds. It is propelled by a seven horsepower horizontal motor, having two cylinders with the crank set at 180 degrees, thus avoiding disagreeable vibration.

Ignition is by an electric spark and the motor is started with a crank, the starting being assisted by an arrangement for low compression. All speeds from four to twenty miles per hour may be obtained by means of a lever on the left hand side of the front seat, controlling a system of friction clutches with belt and chain transmission. A varied speed can be obtained by changing the speed of the engine.

The pivoted hub is employed for steering, the lever being placed in front of the front seat, convenient to the operator. The wheels are fitted with solid rubber tires, wooden hubs and spokes and steel rims, and are provided with roller bearings.

The main frame of the carriage is channel steel and the frame for the running gear of pipe. These vehicles are especially designed for family carriages, stage coaches for carrying mail and passengers. It is not beyond the range of possibility that the lively stables will have them before long.

WHITE STRIP REMOVED FROM THE "BOTTLENECK"

Removal of the white strip on the Peninsula Highway between Colma and the cemeteries was made this week by the state highway department on the recommendation of the Good Roads Bureau of the California State Automobile Association. A survey of travel on this highway at peak times on Saturday and Sunday showed that between San Bruno and the cemeteries two lines of traffic moved toward San Francisco and one toward San Mateo. But on reaching the cemeteries, the white line had a tendency to drive the two lines of traffic into one, causing added congestion.

Removal of the white strip it is expected will result in three lines of travel continuing on through to Colma. The results of the experiment will be checked up by the highway department and the Good Roads Bureau of the Automobile Club. Motorists traveling this road on the outside line of traffic should keep well to the outside of the 24-foot pavement. A. E. Loder, manager of the Association's Good Roads Bureau, said this week.

Charles Nathorst, who for many years conducted the old Belt Theatre on Main street, was a visitor in town this week. Mr. Nathorst is now engaged in mining in Arizona. He drops back to Redwood City occasionally, however, to renew old acquaintanceships and to keep in touch with this growing community.

CONGREGATIONAL OFFICERS HOLD DINNER MEETING

The officers of the Congregational church met at the church parlors last Tuesday evening for a business meeting and for a reception by the officers of the church to Mr. Currie, the new pastor and his wife, who have recently come from Michigan. At the meeting many ideas for the betterment of the church work were expressed and plans made for the coming season.

Those who attended were Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Currie, D. W. Williams, Mrs. Neil Stewart, C. M. Dorse, Frank K. Towne, Clifton Woodhams, Donald MacKenzie, W. A. Crowell, C. H. Woodhams, W. H. Dorse, L. A. Behrens, J. L. Pipkin, Donald Craig, A. C. Argo and Eugene Pfafflin.

After the business of the meeting was disposed of those present enjoyed a turkey dinner which had been prepared by Mrs. J. L. Pipkin and Mrs. Eugene Pfafflin.

WORKMEN FIND INDIAN BONES IN OLD MOUND

While excavating for the erection of a sign on the corner of Beech and Main streets, workmen discovered human bones in the earth. The bones are believed to have been those of one of the aboriginal inhabitants of this section, as the vicinity in which the bones were found is on the edge of one of the largest mounds of this section.

The mound near which the remains were found once occupied the place now occupied by the Locker residence, and was nearly all removed by Wm. Dinger and hauled onto what is now the high school grounds. It was this mound which was responsible for the name of Mound street, which was until a few years ago applied to that section of Main street.

The bones are now at the undertaking parlors of the James Crowe Company, where they were taken by Chief of Police Collins.

TRAFFIC OFFICERS TO PATROL ROAD
Acting in accordance to a telegram received by them from Will F. Marsh, chief of the Motor Vehicle department of the state, the board of supervisors of the County of San Mateo, this week named those traffic officers who found themselves out of a job some time ago, as the ones to be appointed on the state highway patrol force. The telegram from Marsh followed immediately upon the decision of the State Supreme Court that the provisions of the Motor Vehicle bill were legal. The traffic officers were put out of their jobs several months ago, when the legality of the Motor Vehicle bill, which regulated the employment of the traffic officers, was called into question by the state controller.

PARTY GIVEN FORMER REDWOOD CITY RESIDENTS
A house warming party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Uhlenberg at their home in Palo Alto, where they have recently moved last Friday night by members and friends of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church. The party was a surprise to the young couple, and the guests carried with them a supply of refreshments that were severely dealt with during the evening.

PRISONER RELEASED BY COURT
Acting upon the advice of the district attorney, the judge presiding against Delia Brusco, arrested here some time ago, was reduced from burglary to petty larceny. Brusco's arrest took place when he broke into the home of a friend and took away some articles of small value. The court was informed that the defendant was suffering from a mental complaint, and the case was dismissed, and the prisoner released.

F. Thomas Process
Our many years of experience has taught us that it is impossible to do perfect cleaning with cheap, inferior methods. That is why we found it necessary to invest nearly $500,000 in the equipment of a plant and the establishment of an expert organization to do the quality of work demanded by our customers.
With the "F. Thomas Process" we not only remove every particle of dirt but we return your garments without that usual disagreeable smell of gasoline. Every drop of gasoline we use in cleaning is redistilled and very highly refined.
Raw gasoline—the kind that you buy for your automobile—is full of heavy oils and unfit for cleaning fabrics. It is little better than ordinary distillate and leaves a sickening "gasoline" smell in your clothes.

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

The extensive plant of Harry B. Morey, Jr., on the Highway between Menlo Park and Palo Alto, will be completed before the first of the month. A complete line of sand, gravel, cement and other building materials will be kept in stock. Lumber will be added to the plant shortly. Mr. Morey is prepared to supply all the wants of builders and others. His prices are right.

The live oaks immediately around the residence of the late C. N. Felton are being cut down by the new owner. Last year all the oaks on the ranch fell before the wood man's ax. Felton delighted in resting under these mammoth oaks. There he framed many of the speeches he delivered in the U. S. Senate. He would turn over in his grave if he knew these oaks he loved so well were cut down. Sentiment does not count now-a-days. It's commercialism.

Last evening the members of the local chamber of Commerce attended the banquet at Palo Alto given by the chamber of commerce of the peninsula with a view of creating more enthusiasm in the work of the upbuilding of the locality. All preceded an early commencement of work on the Dumbarton bridge and the bay shore highway. Both institutions mean much to the peninsula.

Charles T. Collins and Ethel C. Collins left Wednesday morning for Independence, O. They have been connected with the Veterans' hospital.

Miss M. B. Clarke was re-elected president of the Las Lomas Parent-Teacher Association at the regular meeting of the organization Friday afternoon. The following officers will assist her: Mrs. Eugene Dumesnil, vice-president; Miss Violet Curran, secretary; Mrs. C. F. Felt, treasurer; Mrs. S. H. Hovell, his torian. The election took place following nominations from the floor, as the nominating committee presented no slate.

Mrs. Felt gave the treasurer's report, showing $295.18 on hand. It was voted, 16 to 3, to purchase a motion picture projector for the school and $200 was appropriated as an initial payment.

Get your home-made pies, cakes, rolls and bread at the Woman's Exchange today. Mrs. Kurtz, the proprietor, is offering bargains. Come and get your Sunday supply.

Friday afternoon last a grass fire started near the Las Lomas school house, and for a time it looked as though the building was doomed. The fire department responded and in a short time the blaze was under control. The fire was kept in check until the arrival of the department by volunteer fire fighters.

The common ground squirrel is a pest and it is thought he will spread the foot and mouth disease among the cattle hereabouts. All near-by ranches are over run with the little rodent. The government is doing all it can to destroy the animal, but it needs the co-operation of the farmer in the work of extermination.

Henry Cowell, composer-pianist, who is now on his way to California after a tour of Europe, where he was warmly received in a number of concert programs, was entertained recently in Chicago by Miss Georgia Kober, president of the Sequoia Union High School district. Miss Kober passed last year in Palo Alto and became acquainted with the piano lessons—Mrs. Bostwick Barnes, teacher of piano, pupil of Mrs. Ricardo Biel of London, also tutored by pupils of Leschitzky and Sir John Stainer. Studio at 529 Maple street. Phone 107.

Mrs. Diana Hovell, wife of Attorney Hovell, is the person to start the P.T.A. in Menlo Park for some time. Mrs. Hovell was the secretary of the Las Lomas Parent-Teacher Association of Menlo Heights ever since it was organized two years ago, and was elected for a third term unanimously, but declined as she felt that some one else should step in and take her place.

Mrs. Hovell was the guest of honor and chairman of an afternoon tea given by Mrs. J. T. Cooper, wife of Attorney J. T. Cooper on Glenwood avenue in Menlo Park for the benefit of those who have wished for a Parent-Teacher Association in Menlo Park ever since the Las Lomas P.T.A. has proven such a wonderful asset to the children of Menlo Heights. A motion was made and seconded and passed by all those present that a committee to call on trustees and teachers be appointed. Mrs. J. T. Ellis was appointed with Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. T. Stentford. The committee will report at Mrs. Glun's house next Tuesday afternoon. The following are the names of those present: Mesdames Diana Hovell, Glun, J. MacBain, J. C. Murray, T. Stentford, J. Heltell, Ellis, E. Gardiner, J. T. Cooper and Miss M. Kugler.

The construction of the Dumbarton bridge will have a tendency to place it in the front rank of progressive cities of this section of the state.

J. Gardiner of San Francisco is erecting a pretentious building on Fremont avenue, Valparaiso Park. Other large homes are being established in the tract.

Charles Merrill leaves today on a business trip to Los Angeles. Mr. Merrill is a candidate for trustee of the Sequoia Union High School district. On his return he will make a canvass of the district.

Professor Davidson is a candidate for re-election as trustee of the Las Lomas School district. He has held the position for many years and richly deserves to be returned to the board on which he has served so faithfully and so well.

Although the Lenten season has only begun, Easter being a long way off, yet preparations are being quietly made for two weddings to take place at the close of the Lenten season. The parties to the approaching events are all residents of Menlo Park. They are all prominent socially and financially, and the weddings will be big affairs.

Charles Merrill and George Walsh are seeking to have members of the Sequoia Union High School board, both are worthy gentlemen and deserve success. There are two vacancies on the board that are to be filled at the coming election on March 28.

The radio bug has made its appearance in Menlo Park, the little insect finding its way to almost every home engaging the young householders in the new study of sound waves. Every boy has a set he has himself made or bought so that his nights are spent home listening in, receiving new inspiration from the orchestra at the Fairmont or songs from Hades. The radio is sure to revolutionize the home surroundings of the small boy. Instead of roaming the streets he will find amusement at home with his radio, and will secure some useful information that is broadcasted by the ablest teachers and lecturers, and be thrilled by the melody of the best artists. The radio is a blessing to many homes as well as comfort and hope for fond parents. The world is surely growing better, the brain of man is, always devising some means of making it so.

Menlo Parlor N. D. & W. announces a big jazz dance on Saturday evening, March 15-24 in Native Sons' hall, Menlo Park. A good time assured for who attend. Admission 15c. Ladies free. Dancing until 3 a. m. Good music.

Before his arrival in Menlo Park, he had lived for many years in Vallejo. One daughter, Mrs. George Clark of Menlo Park survives.

Letters From Our Subscribers

Editor Times-Gazette, Redwood City, California. Dear sir:

Please publish this article and oblige a subscriber.

The question as to who shall represent us as supervisor of the Third district for the next four years will be settled in the November election of this year. John MacBain, present incumbent, has looked after our interests for many years, and as a whole has proved entirely satisfactory. Of course, there are always some who hold political grievances, this is to be expected, as it is impossible to satisfy everyone.

Outside of this, the general public must admit that John MacBain stands for that, which is noble, good and true.

Mr. MacBain desires the office again, and we should be glad to give it to him, as he has been very faithful and honest during his long incumbency.

All bridge and culvert material Menlo Park incorporation, should be enough to show the people, that he was thinking of the welfare of the entire district, as without the Menlo Park incorporation we would have very little money for road repairs, etc.

AA bridge and culvert material must be paid from his own fund, whereas, formerly it was paid from the general fund. This makes it hard for him to meet the demands of the public.

The writer has been associated with Mr. MacBain, practically during his entire incumbency, and can truthfully say, that he has never known him to manifest anything but the most honorable intentions in all affairs. He stands absolutely for what he thinks is right and positively will not tolerate anything that is dishonest or unjust.

Mr. MacBain is thoroughly familiar with every detail of the office, so why experiment with unknown material which may lead to costly complications and useless expenditures from inexperience, etc.

So voters, think this over very carefully before casting your vote at the November election as it vitally concerns you.

Look into Mr. MacBain's record into his private life, as compared to those who might oppose him, and decide whether you can afford to lose his valuable influence.

Not to return him to office for another 4 years would forever be a blot upon the fair name of the Third district of San Mateo county. Vote for John MacBain, the grand, good man of Menlo Park.

As a property owner in Redwood City, I would like to have this printed.

I am, of course, not adverse to the Hetch Hetchy project, but I am not in favor of the workmen concerned desecrating property. My lots have been torn up and grass uprooted by the heavy machines and trucks there by making a thoroughfare for other people's cars. I understand this is a violation of the law and that I am not the only one so treated. Thanking you for your co-operation.

SWART SURE OF VICTORY IN TREADWELL APPEAL

The case of Edward F. Treadwell against J. Leroy Nickell and his wife, Nellie Miller Nickell, which attracted so much attention in the superior court here last year, has again been brought to light by being appealed to the State Supreme Court. District Attorney Swart appeared for Treadwell in the San Francisco court this week as he had previously done in the local court. The suit was brought by Treadwell against the Miller estate of Miller & Lux, Treadwell claims $300,000 to be due him for services and was awarded a verdict in this county. The decision of the Supreme court will not be given for a month or so. District Attorney Swart, however expresses confidence in the outcome of the case.
